

‘Active Day’ Dress Code

St. John the Apostle School developed ‘Active Day Dress Code’ for our “Day of Awesomeness”. This dress code is a PRIVILEGE! Any student who violates this dress code at the discretion of a teacher or the office administration will be required to call their parents to bring them a school uniform to change in to. If parents are unable to provide their child with a change of clothes, the school will provide the student with a school uniform from the used uniform store. The student will be responsible for washing and returning the borrowed uniform within two days. Thank you for your help in ensuring your child meet these requirements.
